

Hazard Communications – (17 Min.)

Course Description

This program will teach your employees to recognize and understand the different means of communication used to identify hazardous chemicals including the United Nation's new Globally Harmonized System.