

Struck-By, Caught-Between Teacher Incidents in Schools – Spanish

Course Description

This training focuses on preventing “struck-by” injuries in schools—incidents where staff are hit by falling objects, doors, or even students. Participants will learn about common causes, including improper storage, crowded hallways, and behavioral challenges among students. By raising awareness and promoting proactive safety measures, the training aims to foster a safer, more supportive school environment for everyone. (Spanish Version)